

William J. Hall, RN, CRNA has over 12 years of experience in nursing. His experiences include Intensive Care Units- Medical and Cardiac, Emergency, and Cardiac Cath Lab in addition to currently practicing nurse anesthesia. He has worked for profit and non profit institutions in healthcare.

His well-rounded clinical perspective of the healthcare industry has afforded him the opportunity to work with colleagues on many levels to improve patient outcomes and processes in a variety of settings.

Mr. Hall received a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from University of Michigan-Ann Arbor, a Master of Science in Nurse Anesthesia from the University of Detroit-Mercy, and is a member of AANA. He currently is BLS and ACLS certified. He has received numerous awards including the prestigious James B. Angell Scholar, Veteran's Administration Health Professional Scholarship Winner, University of Michigan Alumni Scholarship, Catherine MacCauley Nursing Scholarship, Catherine Ross Scholarship, and Rhoda Russell Scholarships.

His previous employment experience prior to nursing included the U.S. Post Office, Biomedical Applications, and U.S. Navy.